On 07/25/2020 at approximately 1437 hours Rock County Sheriff's Office Deputies, Town of Beloit Police Officers and the Janesville Fire Department were dispatched to a small pond off of S Indian Lake Dr. in Rock Township. The reporting party indicated two subjects had been swimming and both went under the water in distress.

Two male subjects aged 22 and 23 years old both of Beloit were later removed from the water and given life saving measures. Both were transported to the hospital where they were later declared deceased. Preliminary evidence and witness statements indicate this was an accident. The Rock County Sheriff's Office along with the Medical Examiner's Office is investigating. Future information will be provided by the Rock County Medical Examiner's Office.
